PRACTICALLY FOOLPROOF PAIRING ABILITY

Versatility

From surf & turf and chocolate covered strawberries to brunches, backyard BBQs & tailgates, rosés are versatile wines, which make for a great aperitif or pairing with food. It offers the best of both worlds as it has a white wine structure and more of the red wine flavor undertones, so it can be as light or intense as necessary depending on the food it's being paired with.

Favorite Pairings

Pairs stunningly with shellfish, grilled meats, salmon, sushi, charcuterie, pizza, creamy sauces, mild cheeses and spiced dishes such as Asian or Latin cuisine.

Rosé All Year

The French even have an expression which translates to “rosé all year” or “rosé tout l’année”. The reality is that rosé goes great with a variety of flavors, as rosé has enough structure and body to stand up to heavier dishes without overwhelming more delicate ones. Ideal for summer, but rosé is equally good with a pizza and fire or Thanksgiving dinner.

Crowd Pleaser

We call it the perfect ‘in between’ wine as rosé serves as a ‘white wine alternative’ for typically red wine-leaning drinkers, since it has added structure and complexity while delivering a fresh clean finish like a white wine.
